JAPANESE DID THE WORK

LAI D MINES THEN LURED RUSSIANS OUT.

Carefully Planned the Destruction they Accomplished—Two Other Russian Ships Also Annihilated.

St. Petersburg, April 14.—An official bulletin this afternoon conveying the intelligence of loss of another torpedo boat destroyer and accidentally crippling of another battleship was almost as severe a blow as the loss of the Petropavlovsk yesterday and plunged the whole world into grief. The Russian word in the text of the official dispatch describing the accident is the Pobeda means either "victory" or "torpedo," but the qualifying verb indicates something moving towards the ships. This dispatch puts an end to the opinion prevailing here that there had been an engagement following the disaster to the battleship. It is considered remarkable here that the Japanese did not take advantage of these terrible accidents to attack Port Arthur. It is confirmed that grand duke Cyril's injuries consist of burns on the neck and leg. A private dispatch to his father reports him better. A life buoy was thrown to the grand duke, by which he sustained himself in the water until picked up by one of the boats lowered immediately by other warships. The exact character of injuries to the Pobeda are not obtainable at this hour. The Petropavlovsk sank in two and a half minutes after striking the mine.

PLAN OF ATTACK.

Cheer Foo, April 14.—It is learned from Japanese sources here the attack on the Russian fleet at Port Arthur yesterday morning was planned and put into effect in the following manner: At daylight Japanese torpedo boats made a demonstration before the port and at the same time laid mines across the outer entrance to the harbor. They then retired and joined the main squadron. The squadron then advanced and as it drew near the Russian ships were seen coming. The battleship Petropavlovsk struck one of the mines laid by Japanese torpedo boats, and was destroyed.

St. Petersburg, April 14.—Rear Admiral Oukomsky wires from Port Arthur to day: "The torpedo boat destroyer Bezrashni, sent out during the night to reconnoiter, became separated from the rest of the fleet owing to bad weather prevailing; was surrounded by Japanese torpedo boat destroyers and sunk in the fight. Five men were saved."

The admiral adds: "I have taken command provisionally of the fleet. During some maneuvering of the battleship squadron the Pobeda struck against a mine amidship on the starboard side. She was unable to reach port by herself. No one on board of her was killed or wounded."

JAPANESE REPORT.

Washington, April 14.—The Japanese minister to day received the following dispatch from his government:

"Our fleet approached Port Arthur the 13th, sunk one battleship and one torpedo boat destroyer. No damage to our fleet."

Tokio, April 14.—A brief report from Rear Admiral Uru of Wednesday's fighting at Port Arthur reached the navy department this afternoon. It says Togo's fleet attacked Port Arthur in the morning and succeeded in sinking a battleship and one torpedo boat destroyer. The Japanese sustained no losses.

St. Petersburg, April 14.—It has been definitely decided Vice Admiral Skrydlov, commander of the Black sea fleet, will succeed the late Vice Admiral Makarov as commander in chief of the Russian naval force in the far east.

Paris, April 14.—A dispatch to the Temps from St. Petersburg says: "The fleet remaining at Port Arthur is reduced to a strictly defensive basis. The new commander of the Czarvitch perished on the Petropavlovsk before he had assumed command of the battleship."

DENIAL BY RUSSIANS.

St. Petersburg, April 14.—Rear Admiral Uru's statement that Togo's fleet was responsible for sinking the battleship at Port Arthur is officially denied here. A member of the general staff informs the Associated Press that advice received do not show that a naval engagement took place unless the cornering and sinking of the torpedo boat destroyer Bezrashni can be so denominated. That the battleship was blown up by a mine placed at the entrance of the harbor to prevent blocking of the channel is the opinion entertained by the general staff. It is true that the vessel sank in full view of Togo's fleet, which was seen on the horizon, but her loss was not caused through the agency of that fleet. There is a disposition, however, to raise a controversy as to whether the explosion occurred within or outside the battleship, similar to the controversy which followed the destruction of the United States battleship Maine in the Havana harbor. The fact that many of the wounded, including the grand duke of Cyril, were badly burned, seemed to support the theory of an internal explosion.

April 15, 5:52 a. m.—Rumors are current here that Vice Admiral Togo sent

THE MISSOURI'S CLOSE CALL

Had Narrow Escape from Destruction—Heroic Act of One of the Crew—Burial of the Dead.

Penacola, Fla., April 14.—Two more ordinary seamen, injured in yesterday's explosion aboard the battleship Missouri, died during the night. There is one man of the turret crew missing.

Expert turret officers say the explosion was the result of a blow back, known as wind blowing flames from the muzzle of the gun through the open breech, thus igniting the powder charge being hoisted. Impressive services were conducted over the graves of twenty-six seamen this afternoon at the national cemetery in the navy yards. The bodies of the five officers are being held here awaiting the advice of relatives.

German Ambassador Sternberg and Russian Ambassador Cassini have sent President Roosevelt communications expressing regret and sympathy for the accident on the Missouri. Secretary Moody at the direction of the president has sent a message of sympathy to the relatives of each man killed on the Missouri yesterday.

St. Louis, Mo., April 14.—Lieut. W. C. Davidson, who was killed in the explosion on the battleship Missouri, was the only son of Andrew J. Davidson, of this city. He was appointed to the naval academy at the request of Congressman Pickler, of South Dakota, while attending the agricultural college at Brookings, S. D., in 1891. While serving as an ensign on the cruiser Concord in the Philippines he commanded the ship's band and was captured by the Spanish forces which was afterwards given to St. Louis.

That the Missouri had a narrow escape from being blown to pieces by an explosion of the magazine and also being beached came to light today. Captain Cowles prevented the latter when the vessel was within 500 yards of the beach by ordering the ship's course changed. Chief Gunner's Mate Monson saved the ship and lives of over 600 men by jumping into the open magazine and closing the door behind him. It is stated when the officers heard the explosion in the magazine and saw the flames leaping through the top they realized that the hot magazine would next explode and headed the ship for the beach, intending to beach her if possible before the explosion. Cowles quickly stopped the plan and put the ship back to sea. When the first explosion occurred in the turret the men in the handling room knew in an instant what had occurred. The magazine door was open and standing against it was four charges of powder. Without a moment's hesitation Monson shoved these aside and jumping into the magazine closed the door after him. The magazine was flooded with water and when the men opened the door they found Monson barely alive, the water having reached to his neck.

LATTER DAY SAINTS.

Kirkland, Ohio, April 14.—The conference of the reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints to day adopted a resolution the effect of which is expected to be that the promulgation of literature that has not received the sanction of the church will be checked. The resolution declares "that the writing and publishing of literature as a private enterprise by parties whose time belongs to the church by virtue of ordination or appointment and using of or appropriation of profits of said publications for private wants is unwise and should be discouraged." A resolution was adopted favoring the continuation of Graceland college "as soon as the original debt and entire deficit is removed."

I expect to enter the ring weighing between 190 and 185 pounds, which is big enough to give any man an argument. I have learned quite a bit of the fine points of the fighting game since I met Jeffries at Butte and hope to give a good account of myself."

"Kid McCoy will box with me for at least four weeks. The kid taught me a few tricks of the game that may come in as handy against Jeffries as they did against Sharkey."

Trenton, N. J., April 14.—Hearst's supporters, about fifty of the 1,200 delegates in the Democratic state convention, to day bolted the regular convention, claiming they had been illegally deprived of seats. The bolters organized a second convention in another hall and selected delegates to the national convention who will contest the seats of those chosen by the regulars. The regular convention elected an unopposed delegation to St. Louis. The platform declares against trusts, and charges the Republican party with fostering gigantic combinations of capital and with corrupt and wasteful conduct of government. It also denounces the course of the president in the Panama affair.

The bolting convention adopted no resolutions and there was no roll call to determine what districts were represented. A special committee will be named to prepare manifestos and to secure evidence to substantiate the charge of fraud made by Hearst delegates.

MAKAROFF'S SACRIFICE

Another Theory of the Disaster.

To Save His Squadron from Destruction He Forfeits His Own Life, Vessel and Crew—A Brave Man.

Chicago, April 14.—A special cable to the Daily News from Tokyo gives a new theory as to the death of Makarov. The dispatch says:

"Admiral Togo, it is surmised, while maneuvering his squadrons of cruisers opposite the entrance of the harbor for the purpose of attracting Makarov to venture out of the harbor, dispatched torpedo boats forward for a considerable distance on both flanks to cut off the Russian retreat. It is suspected the advance of torpedo boats was not observed by Makarov's ships, which were intent on an engagement with Togo's squadron, until so late that it was impossible that all the Russian fleet could regain the harbor. Makarov's reputation for courage is taken to warrant the opinion he interfered his heavily armed flagship to protecting the retreating vessels and thus saved the squadron at the cost of his own ship and life, as well as the lives of nearly all on board."

OFFICIAL VERSION.

St. Petersburg, April 14.—The Associated Press obtained to night what is practically an official version of the sinking of the battleship Petropavlovsk and it clears up to a great extent the mysterious features of the vessel's destruction. Nothing before the advance of the superior Japanese squadron the Russian fleet approached the entrance to the harbor. It was shortly after 8 o'clock in the morning and most of the officers and members of the crew were at breakfast. Makarov was in his cabin and the wardroom was crowded with officers. On the bridge Grand Duke Cyril, Lieutenant Von Kobe, Captain Jakovlev, commanding the vessel, and two other officers were on watch examining the entrance preparatory to entering. About 8:30 o'clock there was a terrific explosion of bombs followed a few seconds later by a detonation from the mazzazines. Huge flames were torn in the hull of the ship and the water rushed in; the ship rolled on her side and sank. All information tends to prove that a mine was responsible for the destruction of the battleship. "The scene below will never be described as, so far as known, not a single person between decks escaped. The steam which scalded the men on deck indicated what must have been the character of the death met by those in the engine room. The men on deck were thrown in all directions, those falling in the water swimming and grasping wreckage. The remainder of the squadron immediately stopped and lowered small boats and torpedo boats steamed as quickly as possible to the rescue of the survivors. The force of the explosion sent Grand Duke Cyril flying across the bridge and his skull struck an iron stanchion. Believing the ship about to sink he clambered down its side and plunged into the water. He reached a piece of wreckage, to which he clung, and was picked up by a torpedo boat. Von Kobe was also found swimming and was picked up. Jakovlev was thrown against a stanchion with such force he was killed."

Grand Duke Cyril's injuries were severe. Besides receiving a blow on the neck his legs were burned and he suffered a serious shock. The exact number of Makarov's staff on board the battleship when she sank is unknown, but is thought to be fifteen. The ship had a crew of 660, of which 62 were saved at last accounts.

Nicholas T. Kravchenko, a well known Russian literary man, acting as correspondent for the Associated Press at Port Arthur, is believed went down with the battleship.

There are at present 375 men working in the shops. Eighteen months ago there were but 220. The pay roll for the month of April will be the largest in the history of the institution and will reach in the neighborhood of $9,000.

FRUIT AT THE BREAKFAST TABLE

Nature Provides Its Own Remedies, Which If Used
Judiciously, Insure Perfect Health
at All Times.

Aside from the pleasure of eating seasonal fruits before beginning the first meal of the day, this custom has undoubtedly arisen from the well known fact that nearly all fruit and more particularly plums and PRUNES contain natural laxative principles which act directly on the stomach and bowels. Constipation, that dread and troublesome complaint which is undoubtedly the basic cause of nine-tenths of the dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, etc., so prevalent among our people to-day, and which, if neglected, surely leads to more complicated and serious organic diseases, can surely be prevented, and when not too far advanced can be absolutely cured by the judicious use of the modern laxative and cathartic California Prune Wafers.

They are not a patent medicine in the ordinary sense of the word, being compounded from fresh California Prunes, which every intelligent person knows is truly nature's laxative.

A dainty little wafer, always the same, compounded in a highly concentrated form from fresh California Prunes, they are a natural dissolvent, acting on the contents of the stomach and bowels and not on the organs themselves.

They regulate the Liver and Stomach, Cleanse the System and Purify the Blood, Cure all Bowel Troubles, Biliousness, Bad Breath, Bad Blood, Wind on the Stomach, Bloating Bowels, Pimples and Dizziness.

Every household should have its family package of CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFERS, and at the first signs of approaching illness, or when under the weather, take a couple of wafers, and the doctor's bills will soon be much smaller than they are now.

You can eat what you please if you follow each meal with a CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFER, which quickly dissolves the most indigestible food, and helps to carry it through and out of the system in a gentle and healthful manner, without the slightest pain, griping or nausea. 100 Wafers for 25c.

Why Fremont Unfermented Grape Juice is Nutritious

Because it's Good, Pure and Unfermented.

FREMONT GRAPE JUICE is not the thing to drink if you must become intoxicated. Thousands of physicians prescribe it in their practice regularly because they have found the FREMONT brand of Grape Juice to be absolutely the life of the grape and nothing else. Alcoholic juices and beverages are temporary stimulants at best, while with FREMONT GRAPE JUICE the good effects are permanent and lasting.

For Sacramental uses, Fremont Grape Juice is certainly the safest, purest and best that can be procured for this purpose.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the board of the Old Peoples' home, of Jacksonville, Ill., upon the departure of Dr. Joseph R. Askew. "Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforteth us in all our tribulations, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God."—II Cor. 1:3-4.

Inasmuch as Dr. Joseph R. Askew has been summoned from our fellowship here in this world by the hand of death, but as we believe ashered into the realities of the higher and better life, whose enjoyments are his forever:

It is the resolution of this board, that in his departure the Old Peoples' home has lost a sincere friend and the board an honored member. He was always present at our meetings and ever contributed to the happiness of our sisters, whose home is here, by cheery words and helpful presence.

May that comfort which can only come from the gospel of Jesus Christ, which ever prompts us to care for those who need our sympathy and help, be with us and the members of his family. Signed, J. B. Wharton, R. F. Thrapp, C. L. Hayden, Committee.

VISITING DAY.

Thursday was visiting day for the schools in the Jefferson building, in the First ward, and a good many persons availed themselves of the opportunity to go and spend a few hours most pleasantly. There was no set program, but in each room typical exercises were conducted and the work of the pupils was displayed in other ways. On the walls were shown many drawings, indicating a good degree of skill in that direction and excellent taste in the choice of subjects. In all the departments there was an air of enthusiasm and a spirit of progress and the pupils all acquitted themselves with great credit. The visitors enjoyed reading, singing, exercises in arithmetic, geography, history and the various branches taught in the several grades. Among the visitors were: Miss DeLew, principal of Lafayette school, Second ward; Superintendent Webster, and a goodly number of parents and friends. The callers were permitted to ask questions, which was done in some instances and proved interesting and a good test of the knowledge acquired by the pupils. The affairs were pleasant to all concerned and a good indication of the progress made by the schools and a happy way to bring together the pupils, parents and friends.

A PERSONAL DICTIONARY.

A visitor the other day at the studio of Peter Newell, the artist who makes the quaint pictures of goggle-eyed children, observed a large new dictionary on a table. He was casually glancing through it when he noticed that the section under the letter N came before that under M.

"Why, see here, Newell!" he exclaimed, "what's the matter with your dictionary—N comes before M? Get it on a bargain counter?"

"Oh, no!" replied Mr. Newell, leisurely, shutting one eye and surveying the drawing he was working on, "nothing of the sort. You see, when I first went to school out in Illinois I somehow got it into my head that N came before M, so all through life I've gone on repeating the alphabet, 'L, N, M, O,' and so on. It's always made me lots of trouble in looking up words in the dictionary, so when I got this one I just took it around to the binder's and had the two letters shifted about to fit my own impressions. One might as well be as comfortable as possible in this life."

LINCOLN'S TOMB

Dr. Henry Wolgemuth Recalls Incident in Connection With Burial of Martyr President Not Generally Known.

Few people in Springfield or Illinois are aware of the fact that a temporary tomb was erected at the northeast corner of Second and Monroe streets, on what is now the state capitol grounds, for the purpose of receiving the remains of Abraham Lincoln, when he was assassinated.

The tomb was constructed in direct opposition to the wishes of Mrs. Lincoln, who requested that the remains be placed in the receiving vault in Oak Ridge cemetery. But for the tactics of General Hooker, one of the leaders of the funeral cortege, the remains possibly would have been placed there. As soon as John Cook, marshal of the day, gave the order of "left wheel" for the funeral procession to go to Second and Monroe streets, General Hooker gave the order "right wheel," and the procession moved to Oak Ridge cemetery.

Dr. Henry Wolgemuth, of Springfield, who had charge of the funeral arrangements, recalled the interesting incident yesterday. He said: "MRS. LINCOLN EXPRESSES WISH.

"When Lincoln was assassinated I got a letter from C. M. Smith, brother-in-law of the president, stating that Mrs. Lincoln had requested him to correspond with me relative to the burial of Lincoln. Smith was then a member of the board of managers of Oak Ridge cemetery and was in New York at the time Lincoln was shot. He hastened to Washington, where Mrs. Lincoln announced her wish that the president's remains should be placed in the receiving vault at Oak Ridge cemetery.

"I was then a member of the city council and Thomas Dennis was mayor. I told the council of Mrs. Lincoln's wish. The other members took a different view and, notwithstanding Mrs. Lincoln's wish, the council voted to purchase the ground where the state house now stands for $50,000 from Colonel Mather and build a temporary vault for the reception of Lincoln's body. Laborers worked night and day on the tomb to have it in readiness. It was located on the northeast corner of Second and Monroe streets, a short distance from where the Menard statue now stands.

"Regardless of the action of the council, I went to work and placed the receiving tomb in Oak Ridge cemetery in proper condition and then when the remains arrived at Chicago I went there to meet the escort, which was composed of Robert Lincoln, Rev. Mr. Gourley, General Hooker and David Davis, who was then a member of the United States supreme court and later United States senator.

"It met these gentlemen at the Tremont house, where I laid down the condition of affairs down here in Springfield before them. General Hooker telegraphed to Secretary of War Stanton, asking what disposition should be made of the remains. He immediately wired back, saying, 'Mrs. Lincoln wants the remains placed in the Oak Ridge cemetery tomb and I will see that her wishes are carried out.' The remains arrived in Springfield and lay in state in what is now the court house, and was then the state house.

"Gen. John Cook, marshal of the day, was a close relative of Colonel Mather who owned the property purchased by the city and on which the receiving vault had been built. General Hooker was appointed to march by the side of General Cook, as it was known that he favored the remains being taken to the vault at Second and Monroe streets.

CROWD GATHERED AT VAULT.

"Thousands of people had gathered at the vault built by the city, expecting that the remains were to be taken there. When the procession moved west, General Cook gave the order, 'left wheel' for the procession to march to the vault at Second and Monroe streets. Simultaneously General Hooker gave the command 'right wheel,' the procession obeyed the latter order and the funeral cortege wound its way to Oak Ridge cemetery, where the remains were placed in the receiving vault.

"The remains lay in the tomb three months at Oak Ridge cemetery, when the temporary vault was built on the hill northeast of the slope of the hill where the body now rests. In introduced an ordinance in the city council setting apart six acres of ground for the site of the Lincoln monument. Afterward two more acres were added and still later another two, making a total of nine acres."

LAUNDRY COMES HIGH.

A patron of one of the steam laundries of the city sent to the wash a shirt with an inside pocket containing $600 in bills. It was not noticed by the employees at the laundry and when the gentleman discovered his blunder he hastened to the place, but found the garment had been put through the suds in good shape. By hard work remnants of some bills were collected and taken to the Jacksonville National bank, and possibly some $40 may be rescued by the treasury department at Washington. Moral: Be careful.

The surest and safest remedy for kidney and bladder diseases is Foley's Kidney Cure. J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

GIVES REASONS WHY HE CONSIDERS VINOL

The Greatest Health Restorer and Strength Creator Known to Medicine.

First: Because Vinol contains in a concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements actually taken from fresh cold livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs; purifies and enriches the blood, and in a natural manner health is restored, and strength created.

Third: Because Vinol contains no injurious drugs to react upon the system; you know just what you are taking, as it is printed on every bottle.

Fourth: Because we have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to restore health and create strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and to build up the system after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

A prominent physician writes: "Vinol is the most palatable and valuable preparation of cod liver oil ever compounded. I now use it entirely in all cases where I formerly depended upon old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions."

Try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if you receive no benefit. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist.

THROUGH THE ISLANDS

Delightful Tour of Hawaii at Jordan Street Church.

Thursday evening an audience of fair proportions had a treat such as is not often enjoyed in this city. Miss Mary Ferreira spoke most entertainingly of her twelve years' residence in the "Paradise of the Pacific," the Hawaiian islands, giving many facts and data of deep interest. She told in a graphic manner of the early days of those far off places, the natives, the customs, idolatry, kings and queens, the first missionaries and their noble labors; the foreign population, and many other important particulars. Accompanying the lecture were almost a hundred fine stereopticon views, showing the map of the world, the islands, the steamer Australis, the boys swimming about the harbor, the great Kamehameha, his daughter, the last of the royal line; natives in various occupations, views in and about Honolulu, showing the buildings, harbor, lovely streets, grounds and tropical foliage, scenery in the vicinity, some of the results of the great eruption of 1881, the crater of Kilauea with its various eruptions and lakes of fire; the summit of Maunakea and many other interesting places. The lecture of the talented young lady was excellent and much enjoyed.

FUNERALS.
KEHOE.

Funeral services over the remains of Moses P. Kehoe were held at the Church of Our Savior Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, in the presence of a great concourse of relatives and friends who had gathered to pay a last tribute of love and respect to the departed. Solemn high mass was said by Rev. Father Formaz and was of a deeply impressive nature.

The floral tokens were especially beautiful, consisting of many different pieces symbolic of the life that had ceased. "Gates Ajar" was a large piece from the Sterling company, of Barberton, Ohio, of which Mr. Kehoe was a respected employee; a beautiful lyre from Mr. Stettenius, president of the Sterling company; "Broken Wheel," from the fellow foreman of Mr. Kehoe in the Sterling company's plant; large bouquets from the office force; an evergreen blanket, with which to cover the grave, from the foundry employees; a "Broken Column," from Mr. Sueddon, superintendent of the Sterling company, and his wife; a dial of flowers, with the hands indicating the hour of 2:30, the time of the death of Mr. Kehoe; "Clinging to the Cross," from David Champion, of Cleveland, Ohio; a "Broken Wheel" from the employees of the boiler shop, of which Mr. Kehoe was foreman; a center piece from the Ladies of the Maccabees, of this city, and numerous other pieces and bouquets from friends and relatives, all indicating the universal esteem in which Mr. Kehoe was held by those with whom he came in contact.

After the services the remains were conveyed to Calvary cemetery and were there laid to rest. The bearers were: John Prentice, George Vickery, Paul Alexander, James Harrigan, John Schmalz and Michael McGinnis.

CHANGE of LIFE

Owing to modern methods of living, not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes, sending the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop forever, are only a few of the symptoms of dangerous nervous trouble. The nerves are crying out for assistance. The cry should be heeded in time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life, and all women who use it pass through this trying period with comfort and safety.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I feel it my duty to write you about the wonderful cure your medicine has brought about."

"I suffered for years with change of life. I would have fainting spells, either before or after my monthly periods. They would come on me suddenly. Sometimes I would be on the street."

"I had pains all over me. My head ached all the time, could take no walks or go up stairs without becoming completely exhausted. I suffered untold misery. I tried doctor's medicines for a long time, but derived no benefit."

"I cannot say too much in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and would advise all sufferers of female trouble to use it, for it will certainly cure them."—Mrs. LIZZIE C. REYNOLDS, Buchanan, Va.

When one stops to think about the good these women derived from this great medicine, it seems almost beyond belief; yet it is all true as stated in their letters published above at their own request.

For these ills no other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

As a positive fact the private files at Lydia E. Pinkham's laboratory contain thousands of letters from women who have been safely carried through that danger period "Change of Life." The cures of Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Blake are not unusual ones for this medicine to accomplish.

"My trouble was change of life and cramping. No human tongue can describe what I suffered with the cramp. I dreaded from one time to another so much that I almost wanted to die."

"Our family physician did everything he could for me, but I got no relief. He said if I lived to get through with the other trouble, it would wear away after a time, but I had it six years and could not walk or exercise in any way without bringing on an attack of the cramp, and I would suffer untold misery until I would be perfectly exhausted and helpless."

"I read in one of your little books about your medicine being good for female trouble and change of life, and thought there was no harm in trying it, so I did, and it helped me and I was able to take walks and work some."

"I am very thankful for the relief your medicine has been to me."—Mrs. V. M. BLAKE, Deep Water, W. Va.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had elsewhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. If you are sick write her— you are foolish if you don't. She speaks from the greatest experience.

JAIL BREAKING OUTFIT.

Carlville, April 14.—While tearing down the cells in the county jail this week the workmen found stowed away safely out of sight and where they have probably been forgotten by the culprits who placed them there, several saws made from knives, razors, corset steels, etc. There was also an old-fashioned Colt's muzzle loading revolver, a cartridge and an old dry battery that looked as though some attempt might be made to convert it into a bomb; combs and other articles.

A TEXAS WONDER.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

HATCH'S UNUSUAL OFFER.

"It isn't often that we have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said Hatch to a Journal man who dropped into his store, "but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis."

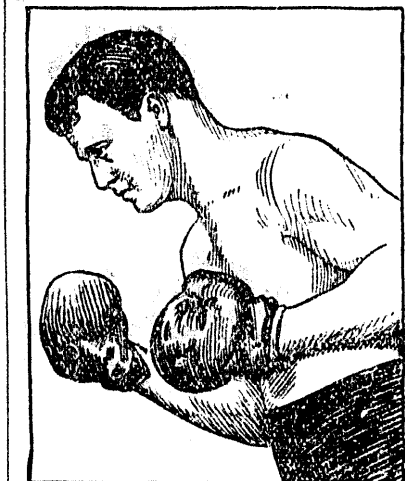

"The Dr. Howard company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes us to sell their regular 60 dose bottles at 25 cents, and, although we have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water."

"We are still selling the specific at half price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific they can come right back to our store, and we will cheerfully refund them their money."

tries. The fight is to take place before June, and the big miner believes he has a good chance to win.

Kid McCoy, who trained Munroe for the Sharkey match, says: "Jack will give Jeff a warm argument. He has the wallop. He is steady and uses good judgment. No man could 'rattle' the miner, and I would not be greatly surprised to see him win from Jeffries."

Champion Martin Kern.

His victory in the national bowling tournament at Cleveland makes Martin Kern of St. Louis the undisputed tenth champion of America. For years he has been known as one of the best six bowlers in the country, but he has been falling off during the past two years. This has been due mostly to ill health, and, as his health improved recently, Kern came back into the form that places him above all.

With the exception of the 1903 tournament, Mr. Kern has demanded notice in every national tournament for years. With the championship this year he has won the Timm trophy, which was put up for the last time in Cleveland. Kern won the trophy the second year it was put up at the Buffalo tournament. As it was decided this year that the trophy go to the winner as his actual property, Mr. Kern has one more cup in his collection of prizes.

In a match game some time ago Kern made the remarkable average of 298 for two games. In order to make this score he bowled twenty-three successive strikes, falling off four pins with his final ball.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Danville, Ill., April 14.—Mrs. Belle Bohn, 36 years old, was burned to death last night. She used coal oil to hasten up a smothering fire in a stove. The frightful blaze which ensued completely enveloped her. Running to the back porch, her agonizing screams brought the neighbors to the rescue, but before a damp blanket could be thrown around her life was extinct. The residence with all its contents, including a sum of money, was consumed by the fire. Mr. Herman Bohn, who is eminent commander of Abelman lodge, Knights Templar, was away from home at the time of the calamity.

MATHENY &amp; LLOYD.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, April 14.—Wheat—Trade was moderate and on the upward side. Order fluctuations covering 3/4 of range. The sentiment was quite divided, but the close showed July up 3/4, May unchanged and September 3/4 better. The market started strong, being helped to some extent by 3/4 advance on Minneapolis curb and active crop advances. The upturn, however, was met with rather liberal offerings from yesterday's buyers, holders being somewhat disappointed at the lack of outside interest. At the decline the demand improved and on rather free purchases, led by the southwest, sentiment again turned to the bull side. Prominent local professional purchasers with considerable support and commission houses were on both sides of July, with buying rather better than selling. The weather conditions were better for movement, grading and field work. The southwest markets were firm. Liverpool unchanged to 3/4 higher. Seaboard had only two boatloads taken.

Oats—Oats were active and strong, closing 1/4 higher, except on September, which was unchanged. The strength came from wheat and corn and reports of delayed seeding. Small receipts also had some effect. On the advance the largest recent buyers turned sellers. There was some buying by cash houses and a better shipping demand.

Corn, bus	130,000	81,000

LIVESTOCK.

Cattle—To day's market was active and firm for good cattle, beef steers being taken largely at $14.75 to $15. A few prime heifers sold as high as $15.75. Stocker and feeder trade only moderate in volume. At $22.25 for this common steers up to $1.00 for best lots. Good to prime, $5.00 to $5.50; poor to medium, $3.50 to $4.00; stockers, $2.75 to $3.00; cows, $2.00 to $2.50; Texans, $1.00 to $1.50.

Hogs—Receipts, 17,000. Local packers are still heavy and although 20,000 were offered to day the demand was slow at an average decline of 5c. Early in the day some hogs sold as high as yesterday's best time, but the market soon weakened at closing the line. Most butchers, $5.10 to $5.35; good to choice heavy, $5.30 to $5.40; rough heavy, $5.10 to $5.25; bulk of sales, $5.15 to $5.30.

Sheep—Receipts, 10,000. The demand was active again to day and prices strong. With prime western clipped lambs selling up to $5.75, the highest price of the season. Sheep, $3.50 to $5.65; lambs, $4.50 to $5.50.

ST. LOUIS MARKET.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, April 14.—There can be but small importance attached to a market of the small volume of that of to day. Dulness is attributed in part to departure from the street of many large operators, whose trading had been an important element in the activity for some time past. Early to day, while it was expected that the decision would be announced in the Union Pacific intervention suit in St. Paul to day, there was some irregular fluctuations in the market. After it became known that the decision had been postponed trading tapered into profound dullness. The few offerings of stock were sufficient to satisfy demand to weigh prices gradually downwards. The March statement of our foreign trade in full somewhat modified the unfavorable impression of the statement of exports, by an increase in value of manufactured exports, which offsets in part the large loss in exports of domestic products.

Money on call easy at 14 1/2 per cent; closing bid 1 1/4 per cent; offered at 1 1/2 per cent; time easy and dull; sixty and ninety days at 2 1/4 per cent; 120 days at 3 1/4 per cent. Prime paper at 4 1/4 per cent; exchange strong; demand at 48 3/4 to 49 1/4; sixty days at 48 3/4.

Bar silver at 63 3/4.

THE GOOD OF MEDICINE.

People insisting that medicine does no good, have one stubborn fact to contend with, that is, the people who do believe are greatly in the majority. We have been so fortunate during the past twenty years as to convince thousands of sufferers with weak, watery blood, who had all the symptoms of a general breaking down of the system, that one medicine at least does good. Nervous and unsteady people, weak, fleshless people, pimply pale or sallow people can have strong, steady nerves and solid, healthy flesh by the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. A tablet to take at meal time, it turns the food you eat into rich, red blood, making solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 pounds per week. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. This medicine saves doctor bills and insures health, giving the very best treatment possible. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist.

WONDERFUL RESOURCES.

The Union Pacific has also extended territory to which round trip, home seeker's excursion tickets will be sold as follows:

Bed Hangings in Vogue.

Bed hangings are again in fashion. The daintiest and lightest of colorings are used for them, from white muslins to net, tulle, and soft tulle in shades of pastel shades. There are also the resolute and quaint colorings, both of design and dye, or the more conventional patterns that will ever retain a modicum of popularity. The textures for the hangings are beautiful. Tulle, net, and drape are delightful, with draperies of the same. The French white work is exceedingly decorative with curtains of a much thinner material. Japanese fabrics are always popular and can be had in pure white, with a knotted fringe, or in tan or tea colored silk, edged with lace of the same shade. Bedspreads and pillow shams of lace over colored linings tone with the hangings. Sprays of old hand woven linen, with borders of antique lace, are being used again by those who are fortunate to possess them. Many shops are showing entire spreads of renaissance and Marie Antoinette lace, which go so well with the flowered chintzes. But these are costly. There are countless other pretty and inexpensive designs to be seen, however.—London Express.

Dishwashing Machine.

When the inventor set himself the task of designing a machine to relieve the washerwoman of the hardest part of her work, about the only obstacle he had to contend with was the tearing of the fabric as it went through the cleaning process, which difficulty was very soon overcome, with the clothes washer as the result. In making a machine that would wash dishes, however, the task was not so easy, as breakage of the crockery is apt to occur frequently if the pieces are subjected to severe handling.

As will be seen, the plates, cups, saucers, etc., are piled up around the sides of a content wire support, and when in position a flat wire grating is placed over them. Above and below the dishes are placed coiled springs, which serve to compress the cone and grating together and prevent movement of the contents of the washer while in motion. When the outer vessel is partially filled with hot water, the inner casing, with its load of crockery, is churned up and down as often as may be necessary to remove the dirt, the water circulating freely through the wires and around the dishes.

A Bench For Library Window.

An attractive device for a library window, either in a city or country house, is a bench made of whitewood decorated by pyrography. This useful as well as ornamental bench should be first put into shape by a nearby carpenter and afterward the top is etched in some strong individual design. The treatment may be a group of blossoms, copied in their natural lines, or in some bold conventionalized method suitable for a flowery plan—either a treatment of chrysanthemums, sunflowers, big bunches of grapes and leaves or a branch of dogwood blossoms. After the pattern is laid in by the pencil the pyrographer does the rest. The remaining part of the wood which is not fire etched is stained in walnut or mahogany. When perfectly dry, it is shellacked and afterward gently rubbed down with a pyrographic paste. If the hidding of plants is considered for the top, it may be ornamented with diamond shape tiles, set in at equal distances apart on the fire etched wood, on which may be placed small Indian rubber plants, Boston ferns or any other green that lives indoors.

Utilizing Odd Moments.

German house mothers accomplish a great deal of needlework and knitting in addition to doing their housework, and it is simply because they occupy odd moments in this way. This does not mean that they are always at work. It only means that they work steadily during working hours, obtaining relaxation by changing the work. They do not sit down, as so many housewives do, with idle hands, to wait for the fire to come up or for the kettle to boil. At such times they always have sewing or knitting on hand. Thus by occupying these otherwise worthless moments they manage to accomplish much more work than other housekeepers do in the special hours set apart for their sewing.—New York Tribune.

Testing Coffee.

When purchasing coffee gather a little of it in the palm of the hand after it has been ground and press firmly. If it falls loosely apart when the hand is opened the coffee is adulterated, but when the particles adhere the fact that it cakes denotes the presence of some substance other than coffee.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Japan's Great Naval Leader.

One of the most interesting figures in the war in the far east is Vice Admiral Heihachiro Togo, commander in chief of the Japanese war fleet. Admiral Togo attracted the attention of the whole world by the daring of his attack upon the Russian fleet at Port

VICE ADMIRAL HEIHACHIRO TOGO.

Arthur and further secured his place as the idol of the Japanese people, who think there is no admiral on the seas so brave as their own Togo.

A great part of Admiral Togo's naval education was received at the British Naval college at Greenwich. In 1884, when the war began between China and Japan, he was commander of a cruiser. For valiant service in that war he was at its conclusion raised to the rank of rear admiral. From that time until his promotion to the high place he now holds he was in charge of one of the mikado's principal dockyards on the sea of Japan.

Cabinet Eligibles.

The senate is very much of a retreat for former members of the cabinet. There are no less than three former secretaries of war. Proctor served under Harrison twelve years ago, and he was succeeded by Elkins, who is now a senator from West Virginia. Alger was McKinley's first secretary of war. Teller was a Republican secretary of the interior away back in Arthur's time. There are a number of senators who might have been cabinet officers if they would have consented to it. Allison has declined the secretaryship of the treasury at least three times from as many different presidents. Aldrich declined the same position when McKinley came in. Chauncey M. Depew could have been secretary of state under Harrison during the last few months of the latter's administration after the resignation of Blaine. Senator Hoar has been invited into the cabinet, besides being invited to be ambassador to Great Britain. John C. Spooner could have been attorney general under McKinley, and McKinley also asked him to be secretary of the interior. He also declined the chairmanship of the national committee in the second Harrison campaign.

A Vanderbilt in Dublin Castle.

Word comes from London that the Duke of Marlborough is to receive the appointment of viceroy of Ireland, as has been rumored for some time. The appointment is to be announced soon after Easter, when the Earl of Dudley will retire. This means that an American woman is to rule in Dublin castle. Her grace the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Countess Vanderbilt of

DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH.

New York, granddaughter of Commodore Vanderbilt, became the wife of the Duke of Marlborough in 1805. The duchess bears also the titles of Baroness Spencer, Countess of Sutherland, Baroness Churchill, Countess of Marlborough, Princess of the Holy Roman Empire and Princess of Middleheim. She is mistress of Blenheim castle, the most superb palace in England outside the residence of royalty. This young American duchess is the mother of two children, both boys. They are the Marquis of Blandford and Lord Ivor Churchill. The former is the duke's heir. The duchess has suffered from partial loss of hearing in recent years and has passed considerable time recently in Vienna under the care of specialists.

Washington, April 15.—For Illinois: Partly cloudy and warmer Friday; showers and cooler at night and Saturday; fresh south winds, becoming southeasterly Saturday and increasing.

WILL GO TO INDIA

Rev. Jesse B. Thornton of Havana Will Enter Missionary Fields of Asia.

Rev. Jesse B. Thornton, pastor of the Methodist church in Havana, has resigned his pastorate and will soon go to India as a missionary. Mr. Thornton has recently been in Chicago, where Bishop Warr, of India, has been making a strong plea for a few more missionaries to that country. It is supposed that he was so strongly influenced by the earnestness of the bishop that he decided to take this step, as it was not known to his friends or superiors in the church that he was contemplating a change. Rev. George Seringer will be in Havana to day for the purpose of making arrangements to supply the vacancy.

Mr. Thornton will be well remembered here as the son of Rev. J. B. Thornton, Sr., formerly pastor of Grace M. E. church. He attended Illinois college here, being in the class of 1898. During his residence here he gained hosts of friends who will wish him all success in his new work.

Madras, where Mr. Thornton will be stationed, is a maritime city of British India, called by the natives "Chennapattanam," city of Chenappan, an Indian prince. It is the capital of the presidency of the same name. It is known as one of the most unfortunately situated cities, considering its maritime importance, in the world. The roadstead upon which it is situated, is open to every wind, ships being obliged to run for the open sea in time of storm. The soil is unproductive and the heat intense. It contains eight established Episcopal churches and numerous colleges, orphan asylums and other institutions. The church of which

Mr. Thornton will have charge is a Eurasian church, in which the people are English speaking. Mr. Thornton will sail May 1st for his new charge.

SUICIDE AT CHAPIN

Robert Nash, Found Hanging to Rafter in Warehouse—Was Employed in McKinney's Drug Store.

Robert Nash, one of Chapin's most promising young men, was found Thursday evening about 7 o'clock hanging from a rafter in the warehouse belonging to F. P. McKinney, the druggist of Chapin. Young Nash had been employed as clerk in Mr. McKinney's drug store during the past two years and he was highly respected by all, and his sudden death is a severe shock to his many friends with whom he was very popular.

His friends are at a loss to account for the cause of his suicide. He seemed to be contented with his work and never was known to be reticent or melancholy. He always seemed cheerful and glad to meet his friends. For several weeks, however, he had been complaining of a headache and pain in his head, and had remarked that he would rather be dead than to suffer with the headaches he was having. No one took him to be serious in his remarks, however.

Mr. McKinney suggested to him Thursday that possibly outdoor work would benefit him and all day Thursday he worked about the yard, doing odd jobs, and at 6 o'clock in the evening he came into the store and left supposedly for supper. About 7 o'clock Mr. Nash, father of the young man came to the store and inquired of Mr. McKinney regarding Robert, as he had not been home to supper. A search was made about the premises and on the back step of the store the hat which he had worn was found. The warehouse is only about six feet in the rear of the store and Mr. McKinney opened the door, and before his eyes was hanging the dead body of young Nash. He had climbed up on a counter, which had been stored in the room, and tying the end of an awning cord about the rafter and then about his neck, he stepped off into space, death being due to strangulation.

The body was cut down and taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nash. He was an only child and about 20 years of age. He had resided in Chapin for thirteen years.

Coroner Reynolds was notified and will go to Chapin this morning to hold the inquest.

THE MATRIMONIAL RECORD.

CASEY-WHALEN.

Thomas Casey and Miss Margaret Whalen were united in marriage Thursday morning at 8 o'clock by Very Rev. Dean Crowe in the presence of a company of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride and groom were accompanied by John Lockman and Miss Whalen.

Miss Whalen is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Whalen and has always lived in this city, where she has a large circle of friends. Mr. Casey is a farmer in this county and is known as a man of strict integrity and great personal worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Casey will reside on a farm south of this city.

COLONEL FORT INJURED.

Col. Bob Fort, of the governor's staff, came near missing the Kickapoo banquet at Peoria Monday.

Colonel Fort was coming in on the same train with Secretary Taft and the other distinguished visitors, having met them some distance up the road. As the train was bowling along near Lacon he stepped out on the platform to take a look at some of his farms that are under water.

Just then a gust of wind came along and blew the colonel off the car platform. Rather than start on the proposed trip through space, he grabbed the hand rail and held on like grim death. There he swayed back and forth for a few seconds, to the intense horror of his friends, but finally managed to swing himself back on to the platform.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and will not constipate like nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse substitutes. J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

AT THE GRAND.

The LeRoy French company presented "Peck's Bad Boy" at the Grand Thursday evening. There is but the merest thread of a plot to the piece and the fun is of the fast and furious character, with always something doing.

Zelda, as the bad boy, acted the part well, while Fred Genzel, as Max Schultz, and Billy Williams, as Happy Hooligan were decidedly clever, and their stunts were well received and deservedly so. The play abounds in specialty work and the singing of the quartet was good.

A small audience witnessed the play. To night "The Black Flag."
